

I enjoy the protection the Indiana law gives me and do not want the FCC to lessen the law on the "no-call" law. If vendors still want to do business I can contact them as needed or they are also free to mail, or email me. I don't want my children being bothered by phone calls when I am at work. Thank you.